QUALIFICATIONS FOR ELIGIBILITY FOR COMMERCIAL DRIVERS LICENSE FARM WAIVER

Farm related industries are:

- Farm retail outlets and suppliers
- Agri-chemical business
- Custom harvesters
- Livestock feeders

The restrictions which, in effect, substitute for the Commercial Drivers License knowledge and skills tests are as follows:

- 1) Applicants must have a good driving record in accordance with 49 CFR 383.77. Drivers who have not held any motor vehicle license for at least one year will not be eligible for this waiver. Drivers who have between one and two years experience must demonstrate the good driving record requirements for their entire driving history. Drivers with more than two years of driving experience must meet the good driving record requirements for the two most recent years.
- 2) Restricted Commercial Drivers Licenses will have the same renewal cycle as an unrestricted CDL, but must be limited to the seasonal period as defined by State of licensure provided the total number of calendar days in any 12 month period for which the restricted CDL is valid does not exceed 180. The good driving record requirement must be confirmed prior to any renewal or revalidation.
- 3) Restricted CDL holders are limited to operating Group B and C vehicles, as described in 49 CFR 383.
- 4) Restricted CDL holders may not drive vehicles carrying any placarded quantities of hazardous materials, except for diesel fuel in quantities of 1,000 gallons or less; liquid fertilizers (i.e. plant nutrients) in vehicles or implements of husbandry with total capacities of 3,000 gallons or less; and solid fertilizers (i.e. solid plant nutrients) that are not transported with organic substances.
- 5) Restricted CDL holders may not operate a commercial motor vehicle beyond 150 miles from the place of business or the farm currently being served.
